

SECURING YOUR GREATEST ASSETS WITH A COMPREHENSIVE SECURITY AUDIT

Overview

Ensure the protection of confidential customer data, financial records, and other sensitive information with a comprehensive security audit from Howard Technology Solutions. At Howard Technology Solutions, we understand what it takes to address the security risks in your IT infrastructure. Our enterprise security consulting includes flexible and manageable security solutions tailored to meet virtually all of your organization's security needs.

Howard Technology Solutions provides expertise and analysis to enhance your security posture, facilitate compliance, and improve operational efficiency.

Comprehensive security audit offerings include:

- Enterprise risk assessment and analysis
- Security architecture development
- Network infrastructure vulnerability assessment
- Application/systems vulnerability assessment
- VoIP vulnerability assessment
- Wireless vulnerability assessment
- Penetration testing
- Physical security assessment
- Social engineering
- Security program and policy review

Whether for regulatory compliance or protection from the loss of sensitive customer data, Howard Technology Solutions' proven, industry leading methodologies will help your institution meet its regulatory and compliance needs.

Receive a free consultation today! Contact a security representative at 888.912.3151 to learn more about the comprehensive security audit solutions available from Howard.