Get a Free Wireless Site Survey with your purchase of a NETGEAR Wireless solution<sup>1</sup>

Design your ideal wireless network, and we will build it.

A wireless site survey, also known as an RF site survey, is the process of planning and designing a WLAN that will deliver the best coverage, data rates, network capacity, roaming capabilities and Quality of Service (QoS). To design and install the optimal WLAN, performing a comprehensive site survey is essential.

Receive a credit for the cost of a wireless site survey (minimum MSRP of $1800<sup>1</sup>) when you purchase a NETGEAR Wireless solution.

Eligible SKU's:

SKU	Min # of Controllers	Min # of AP
PRF0011-10000S	1	30
PRF0012-10000S	1	35
PRF0013-10000S	1	40
PRF0014-10000S	1	45

Ordering instructions

- Partner places the initial Wireless site survey as a standard order to distributor. Distributor then places the order to NETGEAR. NETGEAR sends the wireless site survey service to fulfill the service. The customers pay the partner for the service.
- After the wireless site survey is completed, the end customer is presented with the survey results. If the customer does not place an order for a NETGEAR wireless solution, then the transaction is completed.
- If the customer decides to purchase a NETGEAR wireless solution based on the results of the wireless site survey, customer places the order, which must meet the minimum configuration for the specified site survey. The order will be processed by a NETGEAR Territory Manager with the discount of the value of the wireless site survey as part of the final deal.

<sup>1</sup> (restrictions apply, site survey credit will be based on actual partner distribution costs, minimum wireless configurations required)

* The lifetime hardware warranty only covers hardware, fans, internal power supplies, and does not include external power supplies or software. Hardware modifications or customization void the warranty. The warranty is only valid for the original purchaser and cannot be transferred.

Cannot be combined with other current promotions.
