

D1 Kiosk

Howard D-Series D1

The Howard D1 kiosk incorporates a user-friendly platform to help customers and visitors find their way. Visiting as a newcomer can be hectic, at times, but wayfinding tools can be a key factor to improving these experiences. In addition to enhancing the visitor's overall experience, self-service kiosks can relieve employees in favor of other tasks and increase workplace efficiency in the process. Wayfinding kiosks can also be configured to promote additional services, specials, and websites.

Help users navigate destinations and encourage them to explore the surrounding area.
